Seniors

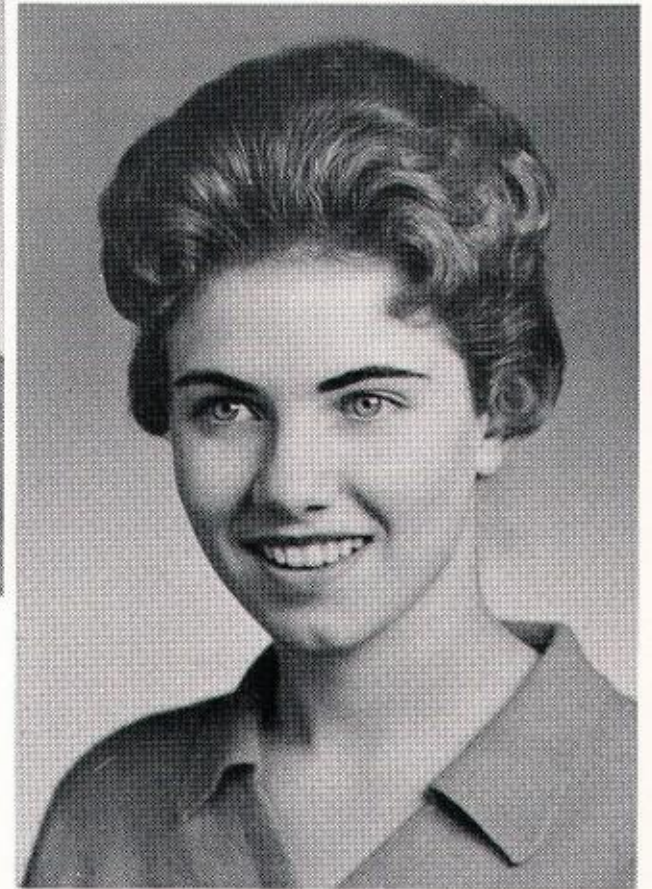

LEONARD JAMES MONOHON
President

*The president of our class is he
To friendship he holds the golden key.*

DENNIS L. BARNES
Vice-President

*Boys may come and boys may go
But its boys like Dennis we like to know.*

MARY J. MAYFIELD
Secretary

*I use the motto of hurry and win
And go so fast that it makes me thin.*

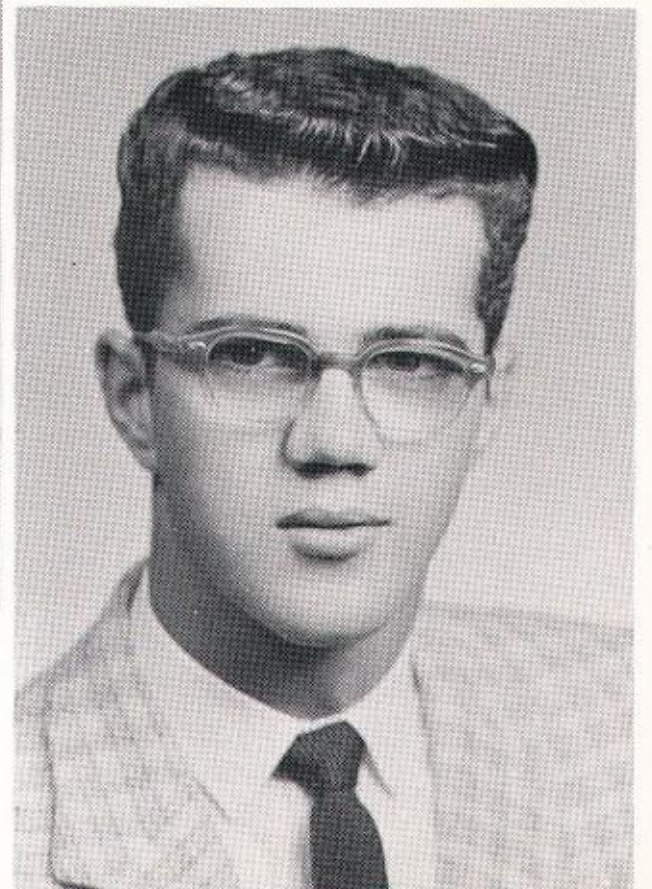

JANICE K. HENNINGS
Treasurer

*A pretty football home-coming queen
- who would think
"Punchy", as a nickname to her
you would link.*

JANICE A. GRAHAM
Student Council

*A sweet and lovely friendly lass,
Well known as "Shorty" to the class.*

GARY LEE KNUTSON
Student Council

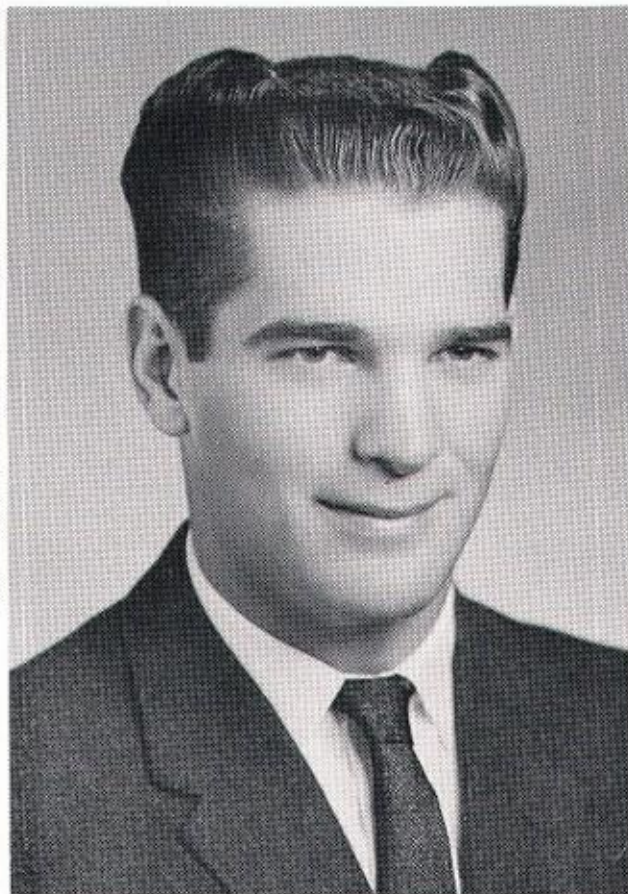

*Dark and handsome, trim and neat
A better guy you'll never meet.*

1960

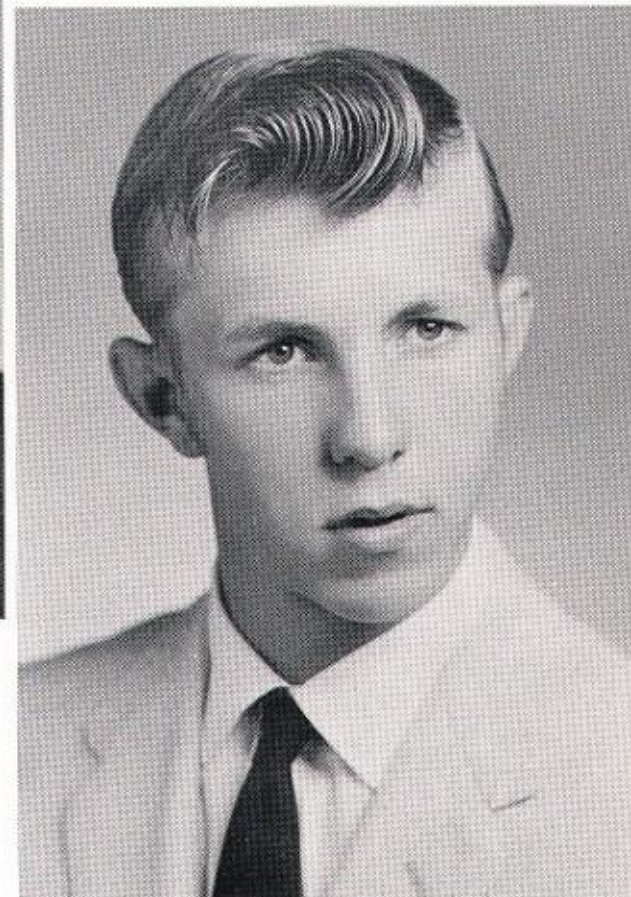

VOLENE CAROL ALBERT

*An embarrassing situation brings her cheeks to a rosey pink
A cheerleader, "Vo" wins all her many friends quick as a wink.*

DOUGLAS LEE ALFREY

*He's great in all sports you can name
We're sure he'll be of All-American fame.*

FRANK J. BAKER

*Bashful, quiet, tall and slim is this youth,
Saying he is unfriendly would not be the truth.*

JOSEPH FRANK CITTA

*This cheerful guy always has something to say,
He's always helping someone in his own way.*

JANE BEVERLY DANIELS

*There's a sparkle in her every glance,
It couldn't be her ring by chance?*

SHARON K. DIETL

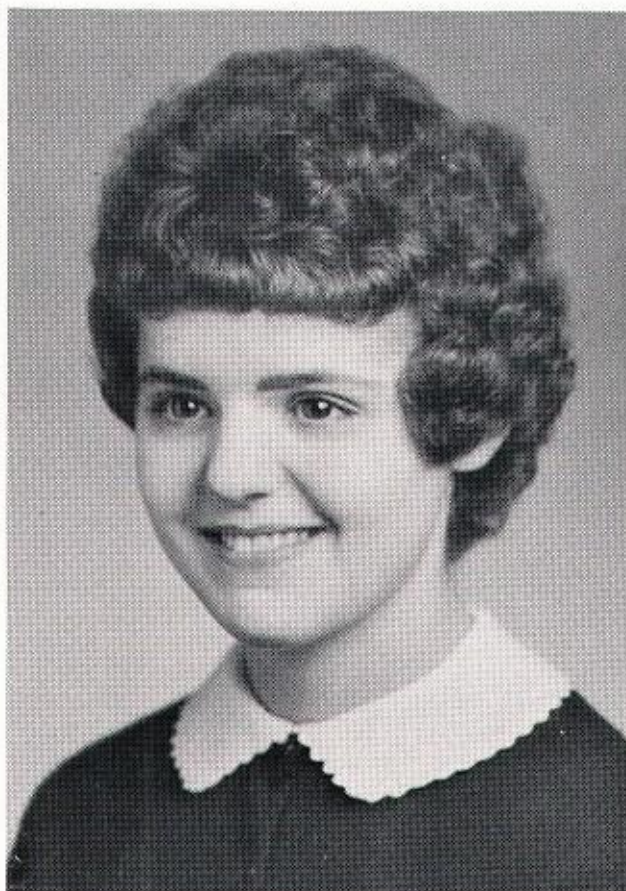

*To those who know thee not, no
words can paint,
To those who know thee, know, all words are faint.*

Seniors

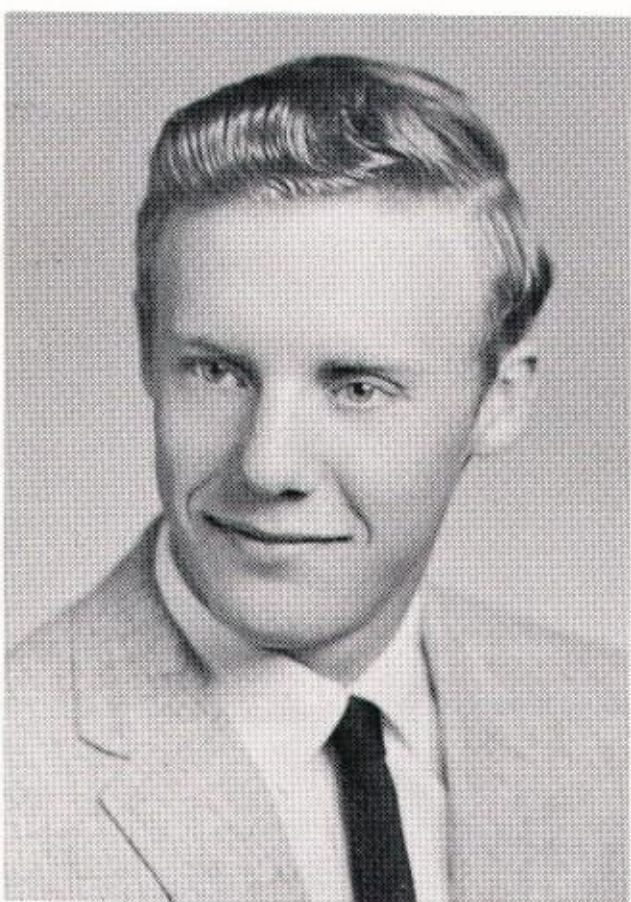

PATSY SUE DOBBS

*Her loyalty to Missouri will never waiver,
She's always willing to do anyone a favor.*

SANDRA LOU DOTY

*Her brown eyes sparkle with her every kind deed.
You can be sure of her friendship whenever you are in need.*

GERALD JAY EMBURY

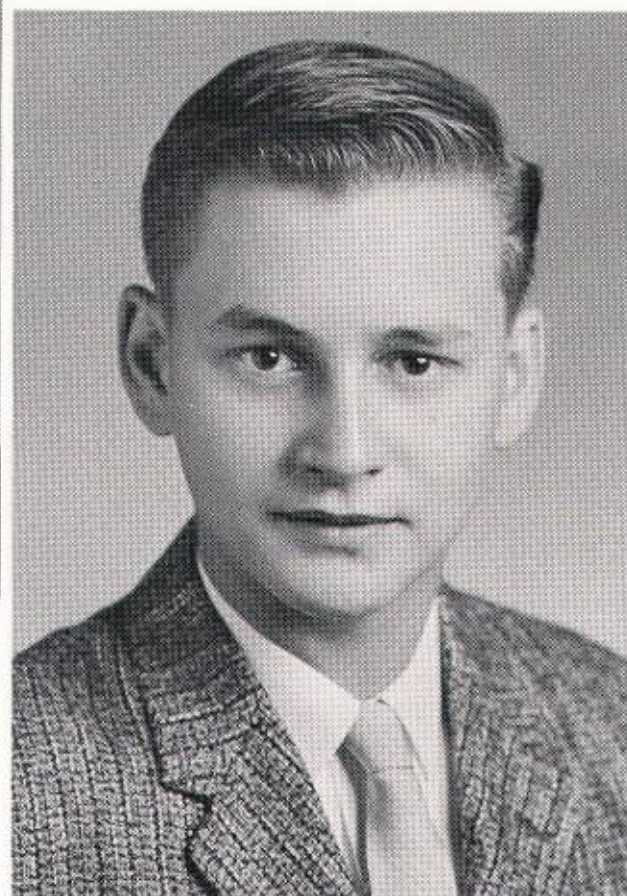

*This boy claims he will never marry,
But someday we know there'll be a Mrs. Embury.*

JUDITH MARIE FUNKHOUSER

*Without our "Dujy" surely you will agree
What a loss in each day there would be.*

HERBERT JACK EAGER
*He's quiet and slow, and wears a big heart,
The Regent's Exams revealed he is smart.*

JANICE EDLINE HABEL
*She is a true blond there is no doubt
A cute little cheerleader who knows how to shout.*

1960

NORMA JEAN HEARD

*There is a sweet lass by the name
of Jean,
When it comes to good cheers, she's right on the scene.*

HERBERT M. HEIL

*A champion turkey raiser is "Turk"
This friendly guy is never afraid of work.*

MARY ELAINE HEIL

*Neat and blonde, kind and true,
A nicer girl we never knew.*

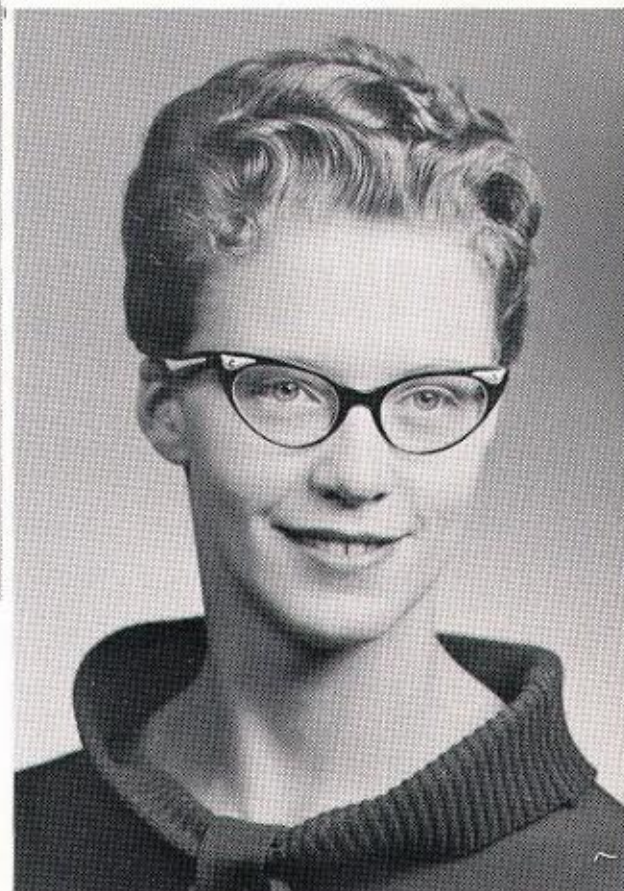

PAUL EDWIN HERBIC

He's pretty tall, that Paul, they tell His every comment is "Big Smell."

HOWARD ROY HINKLE

*Life's no longer if we hurry,
Works not easier if we worry.*

JANEAN MARIE HUBBELL

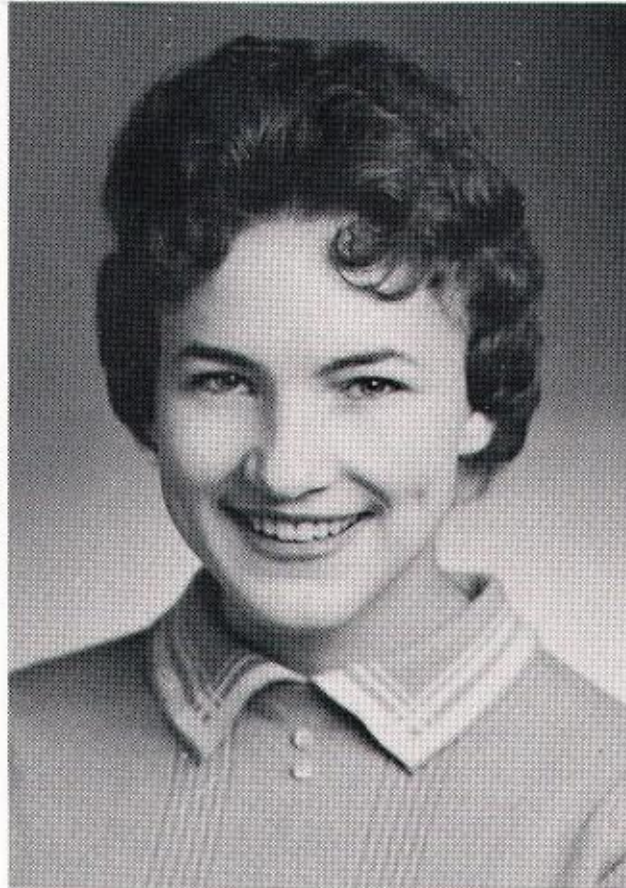

*Peaceful, thoughtful and refined,
Always modest, sweet and kind.*

Seniors

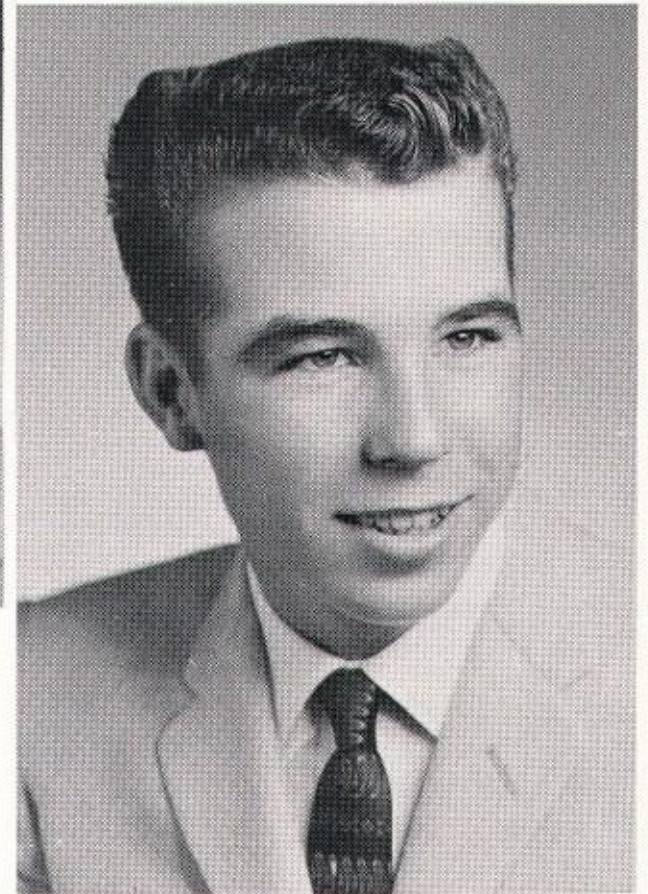

JERRY LEE LUKEN

*As center, he jumps the highest on the basketball team.
In sports or school, with guys or gals, he's on the beam.*

CONNIE ANN MEISINGER

*She is a sweet lass with plenty of class
Succeeding in every obstacle she may pass.*

WAYNE LEE MILLER

*When duty and pleasure clash,
Let duty go to smash.*

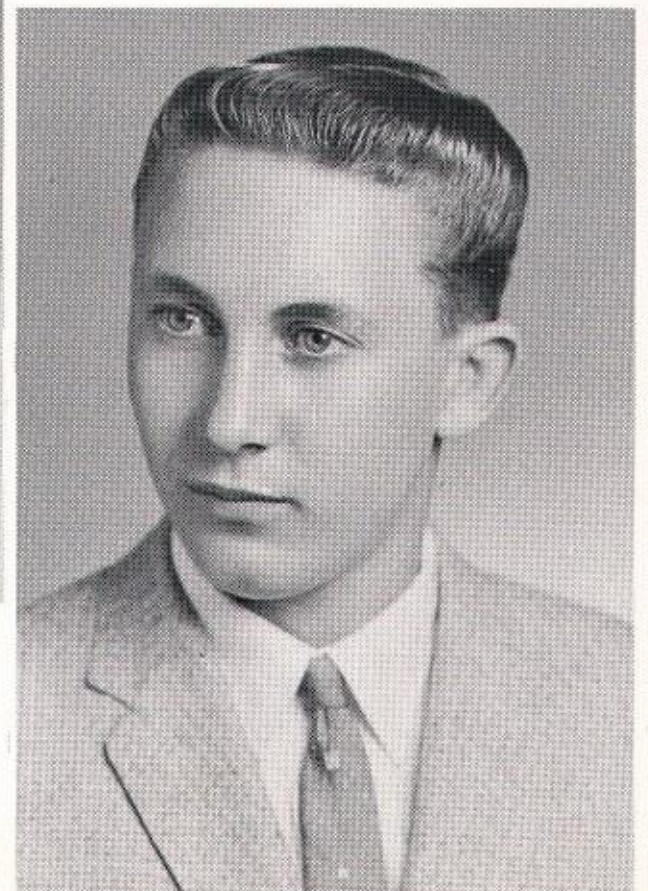

RITA ANN REED

*She is short friendly, shy and sweet,
A nicer girl you'll never meet.*

RUTH ANN SPRIECK

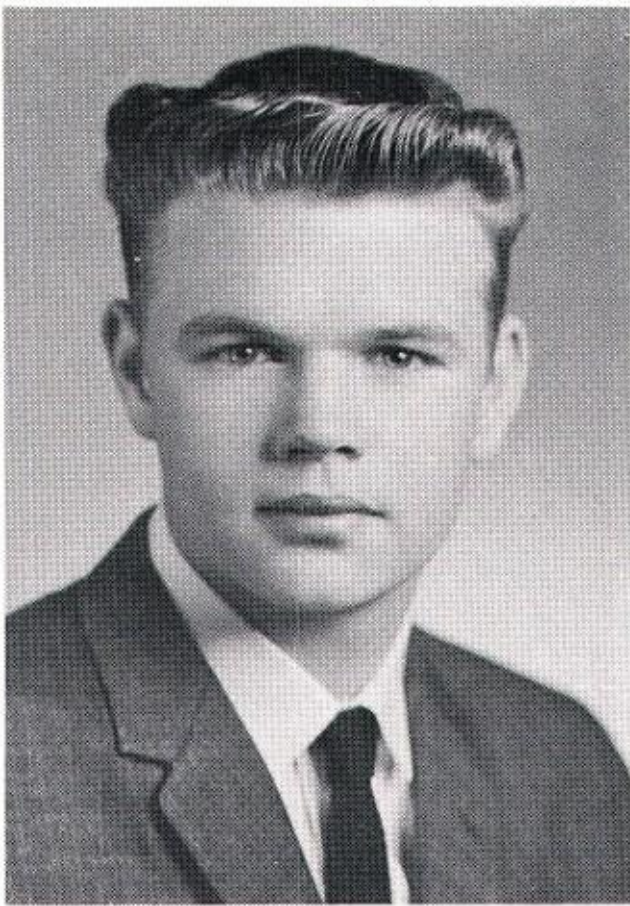

*She sends a thrill to every male
When she walks and swings her pony tail.*

DANNY ELLSWORTH STOHLMANN

*Danny is a very likeable lad,
A truer friend can never be had.*

1960

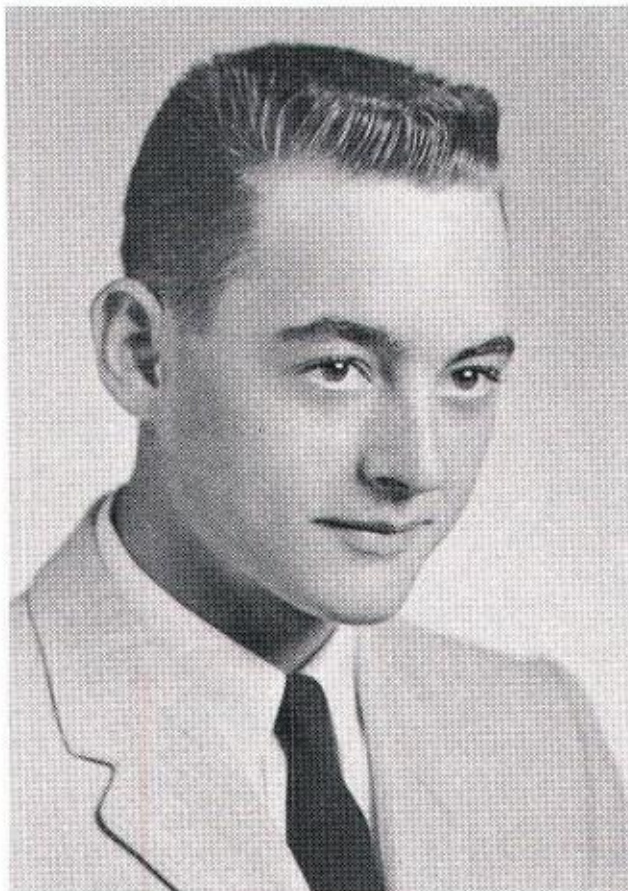

JOHN CLARE STOHLMANN

*The studious type of gentleman he is
Will make the road to success truly his.*

SANDRA JEAN STOHLMANN

*This is one "Bug" we'll never fear,
Her friendship will to us be dear.*

LEROY CARL VOIGTMAN

*Strong but silent is his type,
From him you'll never hear a gripe.*

ROBERT PAUL WIESNETH

*"Wiese", tall, dark and handsome is neat
No one will ever be able to say he's beat.*

LEMAR LEONARD VOGLER

*A smile he always sends your way
He'll be your friend to the very last day.*

AGNES MARIE WILDRICK

*Quiet and sweet she'll greet
All with a smile that she does meet.*

Class History

In September of 1947, twenty bewildered little students trudged up the hill holding on tightly to their mothers with their hot little hands for the first day of school. After hearing so many stories about how terrible school was and how mean the teachers were, we didn't really know if we wanted to go to school.

That was a great year for kindergarten, we balanced out ten and ten; Bob Wiesneth, John Stohlmann, Gary Knutson, Dennis Barnes, Jerry Luken, Agnes Wildrick, Sandra Doty, Janet Heard, Jack Eager, Rodney Eastridge, Janice Habel, Connie Peck, Kathryn Gerdes, Doug Alfrey, Bob Savicky, LeRoy Voigtman, Mary Heil, Sharon Daniels, Connie Jo Edwards and Ruth Ann Spriek, who left during the second semester. Mrs. Fleischman had to contend with the first grade along with us that year, for the two classes were combined, of course ours being the most colorful.

On to the first grade, and school all day long. With that came Paul "Stinker" Herbic to add to the class talent. Also David Sell, Florence Inman, Beverly Bourelle, Wayne Turner, Donald Kuehn, Albert Burt, and Julie Cornish. We now numbered twenty-seven. Miss Poppy, seeing our possibilities, left the next year.

Through the first grade, and again joined with that inferior class ahead of us under Miss Brightenburg. Our class grew right along with us, except Miss Brightenburg who needed it the most. She was the only teacher we could see eye to eye. Judy Velder, Richard Nath, Marla Hill, John Rebsondorf, and the late Kenneth Cowperthwait joined us and kicked our total to thirty-two.

Marriage seemed to have become a fad, as Melba "Bay" Heard got hitched during the summer, and Connie Peck set up housekeeping during the second semester of our junior year.

Leaving our teachers "bedraggled" and broken down as only freshmen can, we advanced to sophomores. We went on a biology field trip that year with Miss Rebbe our sponsor, disrupting the whole city of Lincoln in the process. We gained two but lost seven that year. Carl Stone and Jim Monohon joined us, but Carl left before the year was over as did Melvin Lee, Kenneth Cowperthwait, and Danny Goering. Louis Gibson thought it would be closer to go to Gretna, Beverly Bourelle got married, while Lynn Hendrix took off for parts unknown.

Making the long haul over the course, we finally made it to high school with Roy Hinkle and LeMar Vogler, who were forced to tear themselves away from the Girl Scout Camp. Louis Gibson and Joe Citta whose decoy business had dropped so they dropped in; Patsy Dobbs and Melvin Lee came in with the second wave of the "Missouri Migration"; Herb Heil rolled in to find out what was so amusing about turkey farmers; Gary Knutson, Wayne Miller, Frank Baker, Judy Funkhouser, and Rita Reed came just to see what it was like to ride back and forth with the "plant guys"; Ruth Ann Sprick and Volene Albert commuted from Glendale so as not to be non-conformists; Sharon Dietl and Janean Hubbell decided it was just as easy to plow mud roads to Louisville as to plow mud roads to Plattsmouth; Janice Graham was intrigued by a dark complexioned fellow with a hook nose and just couldn't keep herself away; Sandra Stohlmann showed because John Stohlmann told everybody she'd be here and she didn't want to disappoint anybody; and Lynn "Suds" Hendrix came because then there wasn't any reason to go to Plattsmouth. Gary Reed didn't make it that year because of circumstances beyond his control. But all together we totaled forty-six. What a mob!

Not as newotic as the rest of our teachers, Mrs. Albert stayed with us another year. Kenneth Stratton, Rose Mary Shannon, Judy Funkhouser, and Kathy Oestman left, but we balanced out with Janice Lut-tig, Danny Stohlmann, Evelyn Melton, and Danny Goering. Eighth grade graduation was a big thing for us, especially with the school house burning down shortly thereafter.

On to the seventh grade and the whole building to ourselves, as the high school moved to the new building. Mrs. Irene Albert took us on a field trip through the Lincoln Water Works and the high spots of Lincoln, throwing everything out of "kilter". Rose Mary Shannon, Kenneth Stratton, and Charles Pan-konin boosted our total as did Luella Kusiek, who joined our clan in January, but she left us in April.

They tried to calm us down by splitting us during our sixth grade year, but we were still plenty wild for Mrs. Hay and Mrs. Haney. Connie Weisinger joined our clan along with Kathryn Oestman and Gayleen Kelly. Jack Morgan took off for Oklahoma and we lost Janet Heard due to illness.

Mrs. Hay tackled us in the fifth grade and held us down till we soaked up some knowledge, while John Stohlmann sat out in the hall and giggled. (Remember John?). Melba Heard, Bev Daniels, and Jackie Morgan moved in with the "Missouri Migration", while Janice Hennings transferred from the "Cedar Creek Institute of Marble Shooters". Gary Knutson shipped out to Papio along with Bev Daniels who left later in the year. Kathryn Gerdes also left us at the end of the year.

We were joined again in the fourth under Miss Hohn, who thought she had us pretty well figured out. Instead she had to handle Jerry Embury, Norma Heard and Judy "the dong" Funkhouser, who added to the confusion. That year we went on our first field trip to Nebraska City, causing bedlam as we toured its historical highlights.

Leaving little Miss Brightenburg bedraggled, we took over the third grade position. Here they split us apart, because the class was too wiry for one teacher to handle. Miss Hohn and Miss Brightenburg tried their luck. Mary Mayfield came in from the country and Gary Reed just came in. With that we lost Judy Velder, Richard Nath, Julie Cornish, and Bob Savicky.

As we entered the realm of upper-classmen, we put on our first and customary junior class play, "George Washington Slept Here". With a wide variety of talent it was an inevitable success.

As we rounded the bend into our senior year, we got our first real taste of life by "shelling out" for our pictures, announcements, and the rest of the paraphernalia connected with a senior year.

Again we put on an excellent production of "The Late Christopher Bean" as only our senior class could, with Mrs. Ruth K. Leadabrand again our director. But the big project was editing the 1960 edition of the annual, THE LION, with Mrs. Selma O. Mulnix our faculty advisor.

"Bev" Daniels returned that year, only to leave near the close of the first semester, while Barry Hermansen blew in from the windy state of California.

April 14 and "to Topeka we done sneaka" with beatniks, sun-glasses, "jew's harps", and "Oh! that miserable headache!" Our sponsor, Mr. Donald Tietjen had the courage to board the Bus with us, supported by Superintendent Mr. Jack Welch.

We climaxed our school days with the Junior-Senior Prom, Baccalaureate, and finally Commencement.

Looking back over our school days, remembering all the fun and excitement, we realize it wasn't all wasted time and effort, even if we did learn something. We like to think of ourselves as a big disruption to the Louisville High School system since we are the largest graduating class ever to go out of L. H. S. graduating thirty-five members strong.

In testimony whereof we have set our hands to this our Last Will and Testament at Louisville, Nebraska, this twentieth day of May, in the year of our Lord, Nineteen-hundred Sixty.

Class of 1960

Class Prophecy

While glancing through the evening paper, I noticed a lot of familiar names and faces. Frank Baker, world renowned brain surgeon has just completed a very delicate brain operation on one of Herb Heil's prize turkeys to find out what possess them to stampede. No details were revealed as yet.

Gary Knutson and Wayne Miller had recently purchased the old Aid Building in Cedar Creek and converted it into an ultra-modern pool hall. It was stated that the hall was equipped with an automatic "Que-checker-upper" put out by Pool Hall Supply owned by Judy Funkhouser.

Why here are some familiar names; Volene Albert and Mary Heil have just been awarded the "Apex Gold Medal" by the Apex Borax Company for hauling out their millionth ton of borax. Volene and Mary have been mule skimmers for the company for the past two years.

Going from one extreme to the other, classmates Mary Mayfield and Connie Meisinger have done it. Mary is a construction contractor, building igloos in Nome, Alaska, while Connie is a foreman on a rubber plantation in the Congo River Valley in Africa.

Why Dennis Barnes has an ad in here about his beauty salon and turkish bath combination with Janice Graham as chief masseur. Here's a picture of John and Dan Stohlmann scooping snow in "Little America." They are stock-piling for their snow-cone stand down there.

Turning to the scandal sheet, I see where Herb Heil is suing Bob Wiesneth for slander. Bob insinuated that turkeys don't trot, they stomp. Herb, being infuriated, started procedure against Mad Magazine of which Bob is the editor.

Glancing through the sports page, I see where Doug Alfrey has taken the championship at the state tourney this year again. This has been the third consecutive year for Doug and his ping-pong team.

Agnes Wildrick is going to the Olympics representing the U.S. women's division in the shot-put. Agnes last throw was 74 feet, 9 inches with the sixteen pound shot. LeVar Vogler, champion log roller of the United States, will also be there.

Jack Eager has just set a world's record in egg carton making. The last record was 31 in 60 seconds, but Jack beat that by four and only ruined two, so he would have been ahead by six.

Patsy Dobbs, ace skin-diver for Aqua-Inc. has recovered the famed algae sponge from a depth of over 460 feet. Janean Hubbell has been the high scorer for the "Hotsy Totsy" women's basketball team sponsored by Sandra Stohlmann Used Cars.

Janice Hennings and Janice Habel of Henning and Habel Hot Rod, have just won the Annual Mexican Road Race with their modified full race Volkswagen.

Scanning through the theatrical section, I see where Paul Herbic is going to open a new television series called "Herbic." Paul will portray a typical big time gambler of the "Old West."

The famed Roy Hinkle will give a performance of Spectre di la Rose, at Memorial Auditorium tonight. Two years ago Roy was voted ballerina rookie of the year.

Jerry Luken and his flea circus have canceled all shows until an indefinite date. Jerry's star flea "Horace" fell and threw his knee out of joint and won't be able to perform.

The show "No Time for Beatniks" has made a splendid hit in Greenwich Village. This is only one of the smashes produced by Sandra Doty.

Sharon Dietl has just signed a thirty-month contract to assume the part of "Sheena" in the ever popular television series, "Sheena of the Jungle." The former "Sheena," Bev. Daniels, has taken a leave of absence being very susceptible to poison ivy and allergic to monkeys.

LeRoy Voigtman has assumed the position of "Johnny" of the Philip Morse commercial.

Running through the financial page, Joe Citta Sporting Goods, down four, off ten; with Jim Monohon Midget Racers up three, off one. Gerald Embury Spinner Knobs were holding steady.

Barry Hermanson has just purchased the whole western division of Rita Reed Formaldehyde Inc.

Why, here on the picture page it has a picture of Norma Heard tunneling out of her trading post in Northern Canada after an eight foot snow. There's also one of Ruthie Spriek proudly holding up a three pound egg laid by one of her prize hens. The hen died ten minutes later of exhaustion.
